

Stubblebine Company Negotiates 45,000 s.f. Lease Renewal for Spire Corporation in Hudson, NH

Hudson, NH – Spire Corporation recently renewed a 45,000 SF lease at 25 Sagamore Park Road in Hudson, New Hampshire. David and James Stubblebine and Don Humpton of The Stubblebine Company represented Spire Corporation in the negotiations, while the Landlord represented their own interests.

25 Sagamore Park Road in Hudson, NH is a 90,000 s.f. Flex building with 17' clear ceiling height and 2 exterior loading docks on 11 acres of land. The building is masonry construction on town water and sewer and has 800 amps/120 volts 3-phase of power.

Spire is a diversified technology company providing innovative solar energy manufacturing equipment and solar systems, biomedical devices, and optoelectronic components. Applying its expertise in materials technologies across all product lines, Spire has a rich heritage of applying science and research to develop products that generate renewable energy, improve healthcare, enhance security and deliver advanced solutions to businesses around the world.